

ProntoForms demonstrates rapid enterprise growth with Fortune and Global Top 50 and Top 500 businesses

OTTAWA, Canada - September 15, 2014 - ProntoForms Corporation (TSXV:PFM), maker of leading mobile form solution ProntoForms, is proud to report that its mobile data collection application and platform is experiencing rapid enterprise growth, as indicated by its adoption among six of the corporations featured on the 2014 Fortune Top 50 list and 23 on Fortune's Top 500 list, as well as five on the Global 50 list and 23 on the Global 500 list. These businesses deploy mobile forms on smartphones and tablets to improve operational excellence and speed up business processes.

"We're seeing a new trend of mobile business solutions like ProntoForms being adopted by global enterprises in non-traditional ways. Today's customer profile is less frequently the traditional IT Solutions Buyer, but rather a divisional business process owner seeking to optimize operations. The new profile is looking to more effectively capture and convert field data into business intelligence to continually measure and improve services and asset management. We're leaders in this space with 30,000 subscribers because we provide a whole solution. This includes mobile data collection and data workflow administration, and powerful analytics that reports on data, and tracks results and performance against regulatory compliance or business SLAs," said Alvaro Pombo, ProntoForms Founder and CEO.

ProntoForms enterprise business customers that appear on the Fortune lists come from a variety of industries, including energy, telecommunications and retail.
