

ProntoForms participates in the launch of the BlackBerry Passport

OTTAWA, Canada - September 24, 2014 - ProntoForms Corporation (TSXV:PFM), maker of ProntoForms, a leading mobile form solution to collect and communicate field data, participated in today's Toronto and London simultaneous event launch of the BlackBerry Passport, the latest BlackBerry device offering. ProntoForms was one of three business applications selected to take part in the event launch.

On stage alongside BlackBerry CEO John Chen and Peter NG, BlackBerry Senior Director of Global Alliances and Business Development, ProntoForms CEO and Founder Alvaro Pombo gave a demonstration of the ProntoForms solution.

"We are honored to have been invited to take part in the official launch of the BlackBerry Passport device. It's a clear indication of the impact that ProntoForms is having on productivity for enterprise. Moreover, the Passport's screen size and keyboard are powerful enablers for our form solution," said Alvaro Pombo, ProntoForms Founder and CEO.
