

Triple R Bail Bonds receives judicial approval to mobilize state bail forms with ProntoForms

OTTAWA, Canada - November 24, 2014 - ProntoForms Corporation (TSXV: PFM), maker of ProntoForms, the leading mobile data collection solution for smartphones and tablets, has published a case study on how Triple R Bail Bonds, blazed a trail by receiving state judicial approval to mobilize industry forms. Mobile forms will now hold up in a court of law, paving the way for a move away from inefficient paper forms.

Based in Arkansas, Triple R Bail Bonds switched to ProntoForms for Bail Bonds client forms, saving up to 20 minutes of paperwork per client transaction. Using ProntoForms, Triple R agents collect media rich data, including photos and signatures, and automatically store it in Evernote, their cloud storage of choice. Should a judge request to see an archived form, Triple R personnel can present the document in short order.

"In our industry, we rely heavily on word of mouth. ProntoForms has allowed us to bail out customers faster. That's a huge competitive advantage," asserted Jeremy Rowland, Triple R Bail Bonds Co-Founder and Vice-Chairman of the Arkansas Bail Bond Board.

"ProntoForms is the platform to achieve operational excellence in mobile data administration and gain a leg up. We couldn't be more proud to play a role in the groundbreaking industry accomplishments of Triple R Bail Bonds. It's a story that's inspiring and replicable in any industry," said Alvaro Pombo, ProntoForms Founder and CEO. <!--
