

ProntoForms Adds Sales and Strategic Executive Strength for New Phase of Growth

OTTAWA, Canada - February 23, 2015 - ProntoForms Corporation (TSXV:PFM), maker of ProntoForms, a data collection and business process solution, is pleased to announce additions to its Executive team to impact its already impressive track record of growth and open new global opportunities. Experienced sales executive Chip Salyards joins ProntoForms as Global Vice President of Sales while long-time ProntoForms sales leader Tim Moran takes a new role as Senior Vice President of Strategic Alliances.

Chip Salyards comes to ProntoForms with extensive software sales experience, most recently leading and scaling the Asia Pacific operations of BMC Software with responsibility for over $200 million in annual sales. He has more than 25 years' experience in effective sales management and a Masters in Business Administration with specialization in Finance.

"We welcome Chip Salyards to ProntoForms with his impressive mix of global sales leadership, high growth management experience, and consistent results. His proven sales operations expertise will enable us to scale our sales team to meet growing demand for our solutions," said Alvaro Pombo, ProntoForms Founder and CEO.

"With Chip leading sales, we are pleased to have Tim Moran focus his deep ProntoForms expertise in expanding the company's global reach through the creation of new channels with strategic partners, " continued Mr. Pombo.
