

ProntoForms Names Gordon Stein as SVP of Global Sales

OTTAWA, Ont. - June 22, 2016 - ProntoForms (TSXV: PFM), a leading provider of mobile workflow platforms, is pleased to announce that Gordon Stein has joined the company as SVP of Global Sales, reporting directly to Alvaro Pombo, CEO of ProntoForms.

Mr. Stein is a senior sales and marketing executive with a record of achieving outstanding results throughout a career centered on technology and mobility. Mr. Stein led the Enterprise & Education businesses at Apple Canada, where he drove transformational iOS projects among enterprise customers, and led the Education team to substantial increases in iPad penetration in school boards across Canada. Mr. Stein spent 8 years as an executive with Rogers, holding progressively senior roles in operations, sales & marketing, including most recently VP of Business Segment, where he held P&L responsibility for the $1.5B division. Prior to joining Rogers, Mr. Stein held senior positions at Dell, as Director Preferred Accounts Division, and CNC Global, as VP of Marketing.

“We are very pleased to have Gordon Stein join the leadership team at ProntoForms,” said Alvaro Pombo, CEO of ProntoForms. “Gordon brings a wealth of sales leadership experience and business acumen, and he has a history of successfully delivering innovative technology solutions to the market.”

“I am delighted to join ProntoForms,” said Mr. Stein. “Mobile workflow solutions is a rapidly expanding market and ProntoForms is a recognized leader in the industry. I look forward to driving new growth and building on the tremendous momentum the company is showing today.”
